Most Migrants are trying to change their often-oppressed past lives and many manage to do so.

Parting from loved one is never easy, but leave we all did just the same, forging ahead, taking risks, facing and conquering hardships often against innumerable odds, paving the way for our offspring to reap the rewards of our sacrifice and foresight, for them to be able to prosper in peace and harmony.

In Part 2 there are about few stories about other interesting lives of former migrants who had become real Aussies.
