Karen Randall and Bev Henderson have been best friends since grade school. When the two girls head off to university at BYU-Idaho, their dreams of independence have finally come true. As they meet their new roommates, Meg, Jesse, Treena, and Cassidy, not only do they discover new friendships, but eventually a dark secret that threatens to shatter their relationships. Follow these young women through their touching, adventurous, and sometimes humorous journey, where they learn to rely on the Lord and ultimately discover that even during trials, they are still watched over and protected in beautiful and unexpected ways.
