Ella realizes the need to believe, but even more her need to search deep within her heart to figure out who to trust, especially when those closest to her seemed to be following their own agendas.

With bad guys just a step behind them, Ella and Quentin use the magic to jump through time and space while bluffing their way out of questionable situations—in search of a plan. That comes to a screeching halt when Ella finds herself face to face with the man she’s been trying to avoid.
