Las universidades europeas han experimentado un cambio trascendental debido a la implantación del Espacio Europeo de Educación Superior (EEES) y el compromiso de impulsar desde las universidades el Espacio Europeo de Investigación. El Programa "Campus de Excelencia Internacional. (CEI), promovido por la Secretaría General de Universidades del Ministerio de Educación, es uno de los ejes estructurales de modernización de las Universidades en España. En este contexto esta obra pretende alcanzar tres metas: Permanecer como testigo editorial de la inédita movilización positiva hacia una reestructuración de las Universidades españolas en 2009, instar a la continuidad del Programa ministerial, y difundir internacionalmente el patrimonio urbanístico y arquitectónico de las Universidades españolas. El autor aporta una lectura completa y comprometidamente transversal de la Universidad española, interpretándola subjetivamente bajo la mirada del arquitecto que en dos décadas ha analizado tanto la dimensión tipológica de los recintos académicos, como la planificación de espacios educativos de nueva planta, generando conceptos originales, como el "Campus Didáctico".
