To My Girls Dan Swaningson

Have you ever wondered what your father would say if he weren't such a man, using slaps, grunts, and high-fives instead of verbal communication? Do you ever wonder where he's coming from and question whether he cares for you? The truth is, many men are left-brained and have difficulty putting their feelings into words. Dan Swaningson, father of three daughters, sensed these feelings of frustration in his own girls and penned a letter detailing his feelings, hopes, and dreams for them. He uses Scripture to reinforce the ways in which an earthly father is similar too but does not surpass our heavenly Father. This genuine, heartfelt letter from one man to his daughters can be applied to all women, for we are all daughters of the Father. To My Girls speaks to the little girl in each of us, longing for the love of a Father.
