Diana had always dreamed of being a baker for as long as she could remember. She had also been best friends with Beth her whole life and have been inseparable both in life and in their passion for making sweet confections, way back to the days that they would do so from their Easy Bake Ovens as kids. The girls were born and raised on a small island off the coast of New York City. Despite its close proximity to the bustling city, it was a small town and a close knit community where nothing really ever happens.

With Diana and Beth both being amazing bakers, and poring their own lifes savings into their dream job, the new shop "The Gingerbread House" was born. Everything in this little town goes from great to grim when a sudden murder takes place at a local wedding who the best friends Diana and Beth are baking for. With the groom falling victim to this suspicious murder, the main question in the little town is, "Who's next?" Follow this fun and exciting murder mystery story, as they hunt for who the real the killer is.
