Edward the fish dreams of taking a vacation, and one day, a twist of fate makes Edward's dream come true. But Edward hadn't planned on having to save fourteen ungrateful cats from drowning. And how could he have known he might be invited to dinner--as the main course? Worst of all, what good is a vacation if your best friend isn't there? Maybe Edward should have stayed home after all.

Perfect for reading alone or sharing with a group of friends, this is the hilarious story of how one little fish discovers that the water isn't always bluer on the other side of the tank.
