El gato que venía del cielo (Spanish Edition) Takashi Hiraide

Una casa y un jardín tocados con la gracia de una belleza de otro tiempo. Una pareja que se refugia en su nueva vida lejos de la agitación de Tokio. Un gato enigmático que entra de improviso en su cocina y decide adoptarles como dueños, convirtiéndose en el centro de una intriga sutil. El gato que venía del cielo refleja la belleza no siempre evidente de la vida cotidiana en Japón, con su ritmo pausado y la presencia de la naturaleza que determina el estado de ánimo. Con precisión y lirismo, Hiraide contrasta el tumulto de un cambio de era y los valores inmutables de una sensibilidad ancestral. «Desde lo más profundo de la poesía, Hiraide crea una prosa nueva.» Kenzaburo Oé (Premio Nobel de Literatura) «Una obra bella. Un texto que fluye y llega a empapar en silencio, como el agua». Shiro Kuramoto, Kyoto Shimbun
