The Complete Advocate Ronnie K Boodoosingh

The Complete Advocate covers all of the important skills which advocates require to perform effectively in court. It is written with an emphasis on practice in the Commonwealth Caribbean, but is of relevance to advocates in any common law jurisdiction. The skills are basically the same. Novel themes are dealt with here as shown by the Table of Contents included below.

The author has adopted a practical approach to the treatment of the topics. There are numerous examples for the reader to follow. Any person who is involved in making public presentations can find useful material in this book even though it is targeted for lawyers, law students, court prosecutors and persons who present cases at tribunals.
