Viento a favor: Crónicas periodísticas (Spanish Edition) Eliseo Alberto

En tres volúmenes, Cal y arena ha rescatado las crónicas periodísticas de Eliseo Alberto: Una noche dentro de la noche (2006), La vida alcanza (2010), y esta vez sigue el ciclo con Viento a favor, que recupera el título de la columna que Lichi —para sus amigos— publicó en el suplemento Laberinto, del periódico Milenio.

La naturaleza “periodística” no desmerece la efervescencia de su escritura, comparada con el poeta de juventud o el narrador consagrado de la madurez. Más allá de géneros, la prosa de Eliseo Alberto comunica la prodigalidad de la memoria, el humor, la ironía, las batallas contra la nostalgia que tejen sus intensos lazos afectivos —indelebles—, más la sorpresa cotidiana, los hallazgos de la lectura, el trato con los colegas escritores o la visión crítica de Cuba desde el exilio.

Eliseo Alberto narra también la enfermedad, los distintos episodios, tratamientos y estancias en el hospital que le exigieron optar por un trasplante de riñón, en un testimonio conmovedor. El libro concluye con la última columna que escribió —poco después de recibir el trasplante de riñón, poco antes de las complicaciones fatales que siguieron— y cita, una vez más, a un célebre poeta cubano:

“El sol, claro, ¿no lo ven?, salió como siempre a la mañana siguiente. Lo dijo el poeta Eliseo Diego, mi padre: ‘La eternidad por fin comienza un lunes’.

Cada lunes.

Cualquier lunes”. —Roberto Diego Ortega
