El diablo en el agua bendita o el arte de la calumnia de Luis XIV a Napoleón (Spanish Edition) Robert Darnton

Darnton nos ofrece un excelente estudio sobre el bajo mundo de las publicaciones literarias de la Francia del siglo xviii, mostrando un interesante análisis sobre su utilización para publicar difamaciones y calumnias, además de expresar fuertes críticas respecto a las prácticas cotidianas de las figuras públicas de Francia a finales de la década de 1700. Al desentrañar el arte de la calumnia, el arte del canalla, Darnton nos muestra una pieza clave en el pensamiento y la acción de la Francia que transitó del Antiguo Régimen al Imperio napoleónico.
