[BookStrand Paranormal Romance] From time immemorial he has walked among us. Some would call him a God; others call him the Devil. A lifetime of sacred belief cast aside for one moment of perfect love. Amon traded his soul, his mortality and the only existence he had ever known to save the life of one woman, a beauty who forever marked his heart with the color of her eyes. Second chances. Aziza was as beautiful and innocent in her newborn life as she had been before the ancient sacrifice that took her from her one true love. She was also in danger of losing her mortality once more to the very demon that craved her blood centuries ago. As their souls meet again and come full circle, Amon vows to defeat the ancient evil that denied them their destiny for far too long. This time he won't allow himself to fail, because he now knows the truth—He can't live without her, and yet he cannot die.  A BookStrand Mainstream Romance
