Cassandra couldn't be happier with her husband, Jonathon. Their life in New Orleans is almost perfect. She is just about to break the good news that she is going to have a baby when he is suddenly struck down by yellow fever.

Out of options and overwhelmed by grief, she responds to an order for a mail order bride in California as a last resort.

But what man would want a woman who is already pregnant with another man's child?

She decides to hide the fact that she is pregnant until she arrives in the small mining town of You Bet.

But when she arrives she struggles with breaking the news to her new husband. How can she tell him? And how long does she have until he realizes on his own?

Also comes with a FREE series of CLEAN Bonus Stories
